
 Print this page  Close

Kennesaw State dean to retire

By Laura Diamond
The Atlanta Journal-Constitution

11:28 a.m. Friday, August 24, 2012

The college of arts dean at Kennesaw State University will retire in February.

Joseph Meeks has been the dean for 14 years and has served on Kennesaw State's faculty for 38 years.

Ivan Pulinkala, chairman of the dance department, will serve as the interim dean starting in February.

A new dean is expected by summer 2013.

Find this article at:

<http://www.ajc.com/news/cobb/kennesaw-state-dean-to-1505472.html>

 Print this page  Close