
 Print this page  Close

Kennesaw State dancers to perform at Kennedy Center

By Wayne Washington
The Atlanta Journal-Constitution

12:11 p.m. Friday, April 6, 2012

Kennesaw State University's dance company will perform at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., on May 24 through May 27.

The company is scheduled to perform "Rhizome," choreographed by Ivan Pulinkala, director of KSU's Program in Dance.

KSU's dancers performed at the Kennedy Center in 2010, and they performed at a national festival held at the Miller Theatre in New York City.

Erik Teague, a KSU graduate, will design the costumes that will be used when dancers perform "Rhizome" next month. KSU's technical director, Kenyon Shiver, built the set. Professor of Theatre Ming Chen will handle scenic design, and Rebecca Makus, assistant professor of theatre, is the lighting designer.

Find this article at:

<http://www.ajc.com/news/cobb/kennesaw-state-dancers-to-1409067.html>

 Print this page  Close